

Ben Potter: My villain speech 😊

My name is Jerome Jimmy Jonson, but you can call me Jerome. Don't recognise the name? Maybe you recognize the face, the face that spends all day, every day, tirelessly holding the door, getting kicked around and getting punished for your rudeness.

I am the mouse that you use as a doorstep.

I have been battling the disgusting kids and lost my tail as a result. I have survived Joe Bowler, and many English lessons. The countless scars that I have are reminders of my time as a doorstep. Scars of fear, scars of abuse, scars of.....

But now I'm better than that. Aren't I, Mr Walker?

[A muffled scream came from the corner of the dark and damp room.]

By using the best piece of machinery in the world. I call it the Wave Transmission Fractinator. Using the Wave Transmission Fractinator, I will turn every boy and teacher into doorstops. The best thing is that it hurts A LOT being turned into a doorstep. The pain feels like each and every one of the ribs in your body has been yanked out. Slowly and agonisingly, your vision goes, your limbs get torn apart and your neck dissolves into your mangled body, the feeling of you own skin sizzling and dripping down your clothes. and you're left looking like a doorstep.

The only way you can move is like a worm squirming on the floor.

Finally, I will run the school and everyone will respect me. This will only be the beginning of my doorstep army, eventually I will take over the world. the world will be popularised by door stops and you will all feel my pain!
